COLTS WILL TACKLE ROANOKE TWICE TO-DAY

Both Teams Were Ready for Play Yesterday, but Rain Interiered.

MANY FANS WERE PRESENT

Downpour Came Just as Highlanders Began Practice-Bugs / May Gain Lead.

One of the severest thunder storms of the season visited Richmond yesterday afternoon, and caused a postponement of the game scheduled in Broad Street Park between the Richmond and Roanoke ball clubs. The downpour came almost exactly at 4 o'clock, and although it lasted but fifteen minutes, the diamond was converted into a pond. Owner Bradley and Managers Lipe and Shaughnessy held a conference, and decided it would be impossible to get the field in condition for play.
